

Linton on Ouse History Group Membership Application Form

Linton on Ouse History Group has been formed to encourage interest in the history of Linton on Ouse and surrounding areas. The Group aims to have a series of talks and events throughout the year, encourage research and establish links with other local history groups.

The membership year runs from 1st September to 31st August. However, for those joining in June, July and August 2014 the membership will last to 31st August 2015. The membership fees are:

- £5 for a single adult (over 16)
- £3 for a child (under 16)
- £10 for a household

Members shall be entitled to attend standard meetings free, pay reduced fees for events/ trips and influence the future of the Group. Visitors may be permitted to attend meetings and a £2 admission charge is made for standard meetings (the fee for other events/trips will depend upon the costs involved).

The Group needs members to support the events planned and to contribute ideas for development.

If you would like to join us please complete the form below and return it to Jan Jauncey, Forge Cottage, Main Street, Linton on Ouse, YO30 2AY.
